

PHOTOTOUR North America

Aztech New Media Group

Canada's large urban areas are all in the southern portion of the country. Toronto, Canada's largest city, sits on the shore of Lake Ontario.

Aztech New Media Group

Autumn is most striking in the woodlands of eastern Canada and the United States. This scene is in Ontario, Canada.

Aztech New Media Group

On North America's interior plains, field crops are abundant. This crop, grown mainly for canola oil, has become widespread on the prairie (here shown in Manitoba, Canada).

Aztech New Media Group

North America's largest mountain system extends from Alaska into Mexico. This part of the Rockies in Alberta, Canada, separates the interior plains from the rugged West Coast.